(1) Compliance with the delivery period shall be subject to the fulfillment of the contractual partner's contractual obligations. This includes in particular the punctual receipt of agreed payments. The defense of non-performance of the contract remains reserved.

(2) All delivery times are approximate unless a specific delivery date has been expressly confirmed.

(3) If we are prevented from fulfilling our delivery obligation due to the occurrence of unforeseen circumstances which we cannot avert despite reasonable care on our part, the delivery period shall be extended to a reasonable extent, provided that no case of impossibility exists. Any delay that has occurred shall be interrupted. The extension shall apply in particular to operational disruptions, official interventions, delays in the delivery of essential raw materials and supplies, industrial disputes and their consequences and effects, force majeure, etc. In these cases, our contractual partner shall also be released from the obligation to accept delivery for the corresponding period.

(4) If our contractual partner is in default of acceptance or culpably violates other duties to cooperate, we shall be entitled to demand compensation for the damage incurred in this respect, including any additional expenses. We reserve the right to assert further claims.

§ 5 SHIPPING AND TRANSFER OF RISK

Unless otherwise agreed, the place of performance shall be our registered office and shipment shall be ex works (EXW, INCOTERMS ® 2020). At the request of the contractual partner, we shall cover the delivery by transport insurance at the contractual partner's expense.

§ 6 RETENTION OF TITLE

(1) Until full payment of our current and future claims against the contracting party arising from the current business relationship, we retain title to the sold and delivered contractual items.

(2) The contractual items to retention of title may neither be pledged to third parties nor assigned as security before full payment of the secured claim. Our contractual partner must notify us immediately in writing if and to the extent that third parties seize the goods that are our property.

(3) However, the contractual partner shall be entitled to resell and/or process the contractual products subject to retention of title in the ordinary course of business and/or to process them. In this case, the following terms shall apply in addition.

a) The retention of title shall extend to the products resulting from the processing, mixing or combination of our contractual products and their full value, whereby we shall be to be the manufacturer. If, in the event of processing, mixing or combining with goods of third parties, their right of ownership remains, we shall acquire co-ownership in proportion to the invoice values of the processed, mixed or combined goods. In all other respects, the same shall apply to the resulting product as to goods delivered under retention of title.

b) The contracting party hereby assigns to us by way of security the claims against third parties arising from the resale of the goods or the product in total or in the amount of any co-ownership share in accordance with the above paragraph. We accept the assignment.

c) The contractual partner shall remain authorized to collect the claim in addition to us. We undertake not to collect the claim as long as the contractual partner meets its payment obligations towards us, is not in default of payment, no application for the opening of insolvency proceedings has been filed and there is no other deficiency in its ability to perform.

d) If the realizable value of the securities exceeds our claims by more than 10%, we shall release securities of our choice at the request of the contractual partner.

(2) Insofar as a defect exists, we may, at our discretion, either remedy the defect ourselves or make a replacement delivery at our expense. However, we may refuse subsequent performance if and to the extent that such subsequent performance is unreasonable for us, in particular due to a subsequent performance expense disproportionate to the value of the goods. Goods to be replaced shall be returned to us concurrently with the subsequent performance or - upon our written instruction - disposed of at our expense.

(3) In the event of failure of the supplementary performance as well as in the event of fruitless expiry of a supplementary performance period set by us, the contractual partner may, at its discretion, withdraw from the purchase contract or demand compensation under the 4 statutory conditions and in accordance with these GTSD. The reduction is excluded, as far as we are not responsible for the defect intentionally, nor have we given a guarantee for it. Withdrawal and compensation for damages due to insignificant defects is excluded. A short delivery shall only entitle the contracting party to withdraw from the contract and claim damages if the contracting party proves that its interest in the contract has objectively ceased to exist.

Liability under the Product Liability Act shall remain unaffected.
